

Alexander E. Ehrlich

Associate

Alex Ehrlich, whose practice focuses primarily on litigation, returned to the Firm in 2016, having initially worked as a paralegal and then as a summer associate at the Firm. Mr. Ehrlich has worked on a broad range of disputed matters involving such substantive areas as contract, corporate, securities and health care law, as well as on transactional matters including commercial real estate leasing and sales. In the litigation context, he has particular experience in e-discovery, having managed large scale e-discovery projects involving complex securitization, fraud and contract matters.

Direct: 212.616.7046

aehrich@abv.com

vCard

Academic Background

B.A., George Washington University,

2010 magna cum laude

J.D., Fordham University School of

Law, 2016

Bar and Court Admissions

New York

Notice and Disclaimer

This website contains general information about Allegaert Berger Vogel LLP ("ABV") as a convenience only and is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a source of legal advice. The content of the website should not be relied upon as legal or other advice, and no one should act or refrain from acting on the basis of any information on this website; ABV expressly disclaims all liability relating to actions taken or omitted to be taken based on the contents of this website. The information on this website is not an invitation for an attorney-client relationship, an advertisement, or otherwise a solicitation of any relationship. Neither receipt of any information presented on this website nor any email or other electronic communication with ABV or its lawyers sent through this website (or any responses thereto by ABV personnel) will create an attorney-client relationship until and unless an ABV partner has specifically agreed in writing to such a relationship. Emails or other communications through this website will not be treated as confidential, and you should not send us by email any confidential information or facts relating to your legal problems or question until and unless ABV has confirmed in writing the creation of an attorney-client relationship. Users should also be aware that email and other electronic communications may not be secure.