

Mark S. Bauman

Partner

Mark Bauman joined the Firm as a partner in 2011. His practice focuses on business transactions, commercial real estate, and corporate matters. Mr. Bauman is a trusted counselor and deal maker for numerous long-term clients across a wide range of businesses and industries.

Mr. Bauman represents clients in such matters as stock and asset purchases, the purchase, sale, leasing and ground leasing of commercial real estate, secured and unsecured loan transactions, the purchase and sale of notes and mortgages, corporate governance matters, negotiation and drafting of shareholder, limited liability company and partnership agreements, partner and member buy-outs, and defaulted loan and mortgage workouts. He regularly provides strategic advice to corporate and individual clients in situations involving diverse substantive areas of the law, and has coordinated and led litigation teams in connection with substantial real estate and corporate disputes.

Mr. Bauman's clients have included national, regional and local real estate owners and developers, the largest chain of retail laundromats in the United States, a New York City hospitality and restaurant conglomerate, a national title insurance company, hotel operators with franchises throughout the Northeast, a major carpet manufacturer and distributor, and numerous mid to large sized companies engaged in a wide array of businesses.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Bauman was a founding partner of Bauman Katz & Grill LLP.
